DECLINES BIG OFFER.

Another indication that all is not gloom in England because of the war may be found in the report that Howard Drew. Ocean City, Sept. 1.—More than forty members of the Ocean City Yasht Club attended the dinner at the Bellevue here last night given by Joseph L. Schmidt, Charles S. Wood, and Arthur C. Bredo in honor of Past Commodore Charles I Curran. The dinner was a country as a professional. The Springfield boy is said to have refused this lempting offer and expressed his intention of remaining permanently in the amateur ranks.

posed of a selection of sandlot players from the different teams in Richmond who are making the trip here Saturday to witness the game betwen Ninth and the Alco clubs. This contest will be played Sunday at Andrews Park at 3:30 p. m., and as Dr. Parker has always brought a good ball club to this city a good game is expected as Oliver's Vigilants will present its strongest lineup since the season in the amateur ranks has closed. In the preliminary game the Asbury Browns will meet the All-Star team at 1:30 o'clock.
